Changes of groupage departures at the turn of the year 2024 / 2025

Dear Sir or Madam,

As another significant year draws to a close, we would like to express our sincere thanks for your trust and cooperation in 2024. Together, we have successfully overcome many challenges, and with this strength, we look to the coming year with confidence.

As is customary, transport volumes are significantly reduced during the Christmas period, which is why we will adjust our regular departures at the turn of the year. This may result in longer transit times and delays in the delivery of your shipments. Our partners are also reducing their transport services, meaning import shipments may also be affected.

The exact departure dates for the various countries can be found in the overview below.

Please note that timely delivery before the holidays or directly after the turn of the year can only be guaranteed with early planning and proactive coordination. Confirmed delivery dates require written confirmation.
